

Seth Galanter
Department of Education, Office for Civil Rights

Seth Galanter, Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary, U.S. Department of Education, Office for Civil Rights

Seth Galanter serves as the Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights in the U.S. Department of Education. He started his career at the Department of Justice, where he worked in the Civil Rights Division. He later moved into private practice at Morrison and Foerster LLP. He joined the Department of Education in 2011. Seth received his B.A. from Columbia University and a J.D. from the University of Pennsylvania.