

H. Res. 864: Supporting the goals and ideals of Career and Technical Education Month

BILL SUMMARY

This resolution supports the designation of Career and Technical Education Month to celebrate career and technical education across the United States. It also recognizes the importance of career and technical education in preparing a well-educated and skilled workforce in the United States and encourages educators, school counselors, guidance and career development professionals, administrators, and parents to promote career and technical education as a respected option for students.

SPONSORS AND COSPONSORS

House Bill Sponsor
Rep. James Langevin
(D-RI-2)

House cosponsors: 69

WHY IS THIS IMPORTANT TO NAPE?

NAPE is a consortium of state and local agencies, corporations, and national organizations committed to the advancement of equity and diversity in classrooms and workplaces. More specifically, NAPE strives to provide leadership in the following areas: Advocating on behalf of key equity issues, particularly regarding gender and special populations, in education; providing national professional development; increasing public awareness materials for equity in education, and collaborating with organizations that have similar missions.

CURRENT STATUS

Seeking House Passage

